....With ONE Thought In Mind....
Your Design Refined!

Working for YOUR Referral is our Goal. We offer our clients a personality and creative approach to their marketing and communication needs. JAX Designs, LLC acts as YOUR full service marketing division, with the difference being No Desks!

We will study your brand and research your market, listen to all of your needs and then Over Deliver on all of your projects.

JAX Designs, LLC will provide YOU, our next client, the direct customer service you have been missing and the guarantee of the entire staff that we will deliver on time. We can promise you many things but it's probably best to find out for yourself...

OUR STORY...

We were founded on the concept of under promising and over delivering. Located in Historic Bucks County, just outside Philadelphia PA, with all of the advantages of the Big City Agency and more than 15 years of experience in the marketing and advertising arena, we are able to draw on a wealth of knowledge to produce your projects without wasting your time or your budget.

We offer our clients creativity and accountability, utilizing the latest software for layout and design. When your team needs a boost we can provide that energy. Our lightning fast turn around ensures that we deliver on time all of the time, beating your deadlines and meeting our own! What sets our approach apart comes down to a few things. Compare our invoices to the ones you are currently receiving and you will see that size does matter....

Our cost effective approach and desire to succeed is the difference!

OUR SERVICES...

Whether you need an Account Manager to create and implement your next project or specific Creative Services produced, JAX Designs, LLC has all of your needs anticipated and very interested in knowing your wants. Your greatest challenge is our pleasure to produce...
